Description: From the most trusted name in real estate, a new and fully updated edition of the indispensable guide that helps first-time buyers land the home of their dreamsWhat does location, location, location really mean? How do I decide what to offer on a house? What exactly is the closing? Buying a home is one of the most important decisions in any persons...

Review: This book doesn't give any real information. Half of it talks about very trivial stuff that a buyer could have easily worked out themselves. The worst thing about this book is that when it comes to important details the author skates right over them just says what's nice never what's bad and doesn't give an actual opinion....
